

Final Programme 30.3.2012

Health Care in Danger London Symposium, 23 April 2012 (All speakers and moderators have confirmed)

9.00 – 10.30 Opening

Geoff Loane, ICRC Head of Mission, London - Why are we here?

Paul Henri Arni, ICRC, Head of Project – Overview of the project "Health Care in Danger"

Dr. Unni Karunakara, President, MSF International– What insecurity of health care means at a field level

Professor Sir Michael Marmot, University College London – Insecurity and social determinants of health

10.30 – 11.00 Coffee

11.00 – 12.30 Panel 1, Building a community of concern

Moderator: Sir Nicholas Young, Chief Executive, British Red Cross

Professor Sir Andrew Haines, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
- A greater responsibility of health care professionals?

Carolyn Miller, Chief Executive, Merlin - Health professionals speaking out

Mohini Ghai Kramer, Head of corporate communication, ICRC - The ICRC communication strategy to build a "community of concern"

Discussion

12.30 – 14.00 Lunch at BMA House

14.00 – 15.30 Panel 2, Recommendations of the health community to governments and intergovernmental organisations.

Moderator: Angela Gussing, Deputy Director of Operations, ICRC

Gilles Thal Larsen, International Law Adviser, British Red Cross – Overview of legal protection of the wounded and sick and of health care

Professor Len Rubenstein, Johns Hopkins University, Washington
- Intergovernmental organisations and security of health care

Dr Peter Hill, Associate Professor, Australian Centre for International and Tropical Health, University of Queensland
- Health systems in disrupted environments

Dr Rudi Coninx, Programme Officer, Polio, Emergencies and Country Collaboration, World Health Organisation
- The role of the international health community

Discussion

15.30 – 16.00 Tea / Coffee

Final Programme 30.3.2012

16.00 – 17.30 Panel 3, Medical ethics in "Health Care in Danger"

Moderator: - Dr Vivienne Nathanson, Head, Professional Activities, BMA

Philippa Parker Head of ICRC health unit - Every day dilemmas of a head nurse

Surgeon Rear Admiral Lionel Jarvis Medical Director General, Navy, UK-

Dilemmas for military medical personnel,

Dr José Luiz Gomes Do Amaral, President, World Medical Association - The need for development or application of medical ethics in armed conflict and other emergencies

Discussion

17.30 – 17.45 Closing comments – Dr Robin Coupland, Medical Adviser, ICRC