

DIGNITY IN DETENTION

Everyone in detention retains the fundamental right to good health, both physical and mental, and is entitled to a standard of health care that is at least equivalent to that provided in the wider community.

099-Mitchewa/ICRC-41183/002-07/2013-800

ICRC