

DIGNITY IN DETENTION

Everyone in detention has the right to remain in contact with family members and to maintain, as far as possible, normal relations with them.