

Colonel Javier Guisández (Spanish Air Force)

Personal Data:

D.O.B: 27 November 1945

Education: Superior branch of Spanish Air Force
Master in High Administration of Resources
Master in International Relationships and Security

Professional experience:

Current post: Vice Director of Personnel Services at the Air Force HQ (Madrid)

Previous: Fighter and Transport pilot with over 5,000 flying hours

Spanish Air Force Representative in NATO for the NBC protection of the Reaction Air Forces
Spanish Defence Ministry Representative in the Program of the aircraft Eurofighter 2000
Spanish Representative in NATO for the Crisis Response Doctrine
Military Attaché of the Spanish Embassies in Italy, Albania, Malt, Serbia and Montenegro

Other experience:

Professor and Director in the International Institute of Humanitarian International Law (San Remo/Italy)
International consultant of NNUU for Human Rights
Personalized professor of the Prince of Asturias Don Felipe de Borbón
Member of the Royal Collage Defense Studies (Londres/UK)
Member of the Society of Logistic Engineers (California/USA)
Permanent professor of the Air Force High School
Professor of the Study Centre of International Humanitarian Law
NNUU Instructor on Human Rights

Publications

Written and co-written some 20 titles of books and monographs on military and LoAC matters.