

DISTINGUISH

Combatant or civilian? It's a vital distinction.

In modern armed conflicts, civilians suffer the most.

International humanitarian law says they have to be spared and protected.

The rules must be respected.

ICRC

30th Anniversary of the Additional Protocols to the Geneva Conventions

www.icrc.org