Sponsor of the pledge:

Full name: Mr Robert Duncan Date: 4 December 2003
Designation: Secretary General Place: Penguin Town of the South Pole Red Cross Society
Signature: _____

For the years 2004-2007, we hereby pledge (maximum 10 lines):

To undertake a review of the legislation now governing the status of the National Red Cross/Red Crescent Society and protection of the red cross/red crescent emblem (Red Cross/Red Crescent Protection Law), with a view to adapting it to current needs. This will be done by the government/parliament and the National Red Cross/Red Crescent Society, working in close cooperation. Due consideration will be given to the Draft Model Red Cross/Red Crescent Law.

Proposed evaluation criteria (in 2007):

- ➡ A joint mechanism has been set up, comprising representatives from the government, parliament and the National Red Cross/Red Crescent Society, to review existing national legislation;
- ➡ Advice has been sought from the Joint ICRC/Federation Commission for National Society Statutes;
- ➡ National legislation on both the status and the emblem has been adopted and is being enforced.
