

Together with the South Sudan Red Cross, the ICRC responds to the urgent needs of the communities most severely affected by armed conflict and situations of violence. With offices in the Equatorias, Wau, Jonglei, Upper Nile, Bentiu and Unity states, South Sudan remains the ICRC's largest operation on the African continent.

In response to people's most urgent needs and to help build the resilience of the displaced, the ICRC and the South Sudan Red Cross (SSRC) have:

Distributed more than 1,600,000 food rations
 Provided household essentials for 600,000 people
 Provided nearly 677,000 people with seeds and tools for farming
 And over 234,000 with fishing kits

Vaccinated more than 1,000,000 heads of livestock
 Treated 200,000 animals, benefitting nearly 460,000 people
 Trained over 400 community animal health workers and provided them with drugs

Ensured access to safe drinking water for over 615,000 resident and displaced people through the rehabilitation of 490 water infrastructures
 Installed emergency water units benefitting more than 176,000 people in response to the cholera outbreaks in 2014 and 2015

To support access to health and surgical care the ICRC has:

Performed nearly 8,000 surgeries
 Conducted more than 182,000 outpatient consultations
 Provided medical materials to 75 first-aid and other health-care facilities

Provided antenatal care for 6,700 women, safe deliveries for nearly 500 and more than 12,500 vaccine doses for children under one year old

Assisted nearly 5,600 people with disabilities
 Evacuated 965 war-wounded patients

Through visits to places of detention, the ICRC supports authorities to adhere to international standards:

Visited more than 5,700 detainees throughout the country
 Improved living conditions for 5,350 detainees and implemented preventive measures against cholera

To help reconnect family members separated by the conflict the ICRC and SSRC have:

Facilitated nearly 30,000 phone calls between family members separated by the conflict
 Distributed more than 5,600 Red Cross messages

Reunited 84 children and vulnerable people with their families.

To promote knowledge and respect for International Humanitarian Law, the ICRC has:

Trained over 4,200 weapon bearers, from both sides of the conflict, on IHL and 837 weapon bearers, police and fire fighters in first aid and safe access to health care.

For more information visit www.icrc.org/ss

International Committee of the Red Cross - Delegation in South Sudan
 Media relations: +211 912 360 038 / 0923 158 196 | email: jub\_juba@icrc.org

ICRC