

TERMS AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING FUNDRAISING FOR THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) is an independent and neutral humanitarian organization that provides protection and assistance to victims of armed conflict and other violence.

These Terms and Conditions apply to any individual, legal entity or representative of a group who wishes to raise funds for the ICRC (hereinafter "the Fundraiser").

This document sets out the terms and conditions governing fundraising for the ICRC by any Fundraiser. To enable the ICRC to fulfil its mission to support victims of armed conflict and other violence, it is essential that the Fundraiser follow the rules set out below.

The Fundraiser hereby undertakes to comply with the following rules:

1. Any fundraising for the ICRC must be compatible with the ICRC's goals and mission and in keeping with its image.
2. The Fundraiser will act in their own name and on their own account. The Fundraiser does not represent the ICRC, will not act on behalf of the ICRC and will refrain from any action that could lead to a conclusion to the contrary.
3. If the ICRC provides the Fundraiser with promotional material (such as posters, leaflets, etc.), the Fundraiser will use that material only for the fundraising project and in keeping with the material's purpose.
4. The Fundraiser will only use the ICRC's name to indicate that it is the beneficiary of the fundraising; this applies in particular to any documents the Fundraiser publishes. Any other use of the ICRC's name and any use of the ICRC logo will require prior written consent from the ICRC.
5. If the Fundraiser intends to use third parties, such as sponsors, the Fundraiser will provide their names to the ICRC prior to the event and will only include them in the event with the ICRC's express consent.
6. Following the fundraising event, the Fundraiser will transfer the funds to the ICRC and send a copy of the payment by email to donation@icrc.org or by post to the ICRC's mailing address. The ICRC will then send a receipt and a thank you letter.
7. The Fundraiser alone is responsible for organizing the fundraising and releases the ICRC from all responsibility in this regard.
8. The ICRC reserves the right to withdraw its consent for the fundraising at any time, particularly if these rules are not complied with, and this without prejudice to any other remedy available in the event of an infringement of the ICRC's rights.
